

GETTING STARTED IN TEACHING ABROAD

Licenses & Certs

To teach internationally, the first and most important item you will need is a valid teaching license/certificate

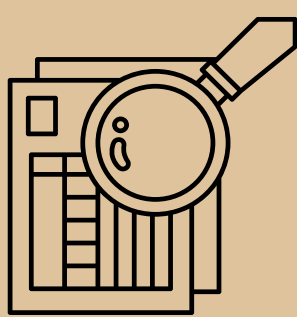

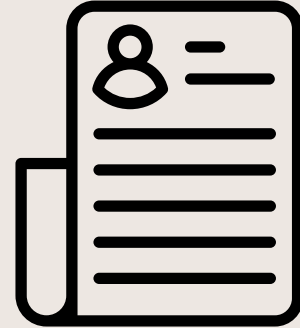

Experience

Many countries, schools, and recruitment agencies prefer you have at least 2 years full-time experience in the classroom.

References

Schools and agencies will want to know you are a good teacher and will require references to check up on this.

Resumé

You'll need to have a polished and updated resumé to show potential employers your work history and skills.

Background Checks

Child protection is important. You'll need at least a national background check (e.g. FBI) and from previous countries lived in.
